Whereas, The ASCCC has an established tradition of supporting local senates; and

Whereas, The ASCCC has a well designed website with a plethora of information for community college faculty statewide; and

Whereas, Informed local senates support the mission of the ASCCC; and

Whereas, Portable computing devices, such as laptops, are becoming more common amongst ASCCC Plenary Session delegates; and

Whereas, New resolutions and amendments introduced at the ASCCC Plenary Sessions may significantly alter motions that had been discussed by local senates; and

Whereas, Some local academic senate presidents may want to be able to discuss newly proposed resolutions and amendments with local college colleagues;

Resolved, That during the plenary sessions, updated resolutions and amendments will be posted online at the same time as they are being distributed on paper; and

Resolved, That these updates be listed in addition to previous versions; and

Resolved, That the page of plenary session resources should be reformatted to allow for the clear posting of these documents as they become available.
