STUDY ABROAD IN LONDON
WITH CABRILLO COLLEGE THIS JUNE

Tuesday, March 4, 2008 – 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., Room 426, Aptos Campus
Saturday, March 15, 2008—1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m., Room 405, Aptos Campus

Fascinated by England and its history? Prefer to combine learning with travel? Then join Cabrillo College history instructor, Dr. Michael Mangin on a three-week journey to London. You'll combine classroom time with visits to historical and cultural sites such as Stonehenge, the British Museum, Westminster Abbey, attend plays in London's famous West End and the Wimbledon Tennis Championship. You'll live in your own apartment in Central London, walk the streets, see the sights and become a part of the city that has shaped so much of the world's history.

Want to learn more? Join Dr. Mangin for an informative orientation meeting at Cabrillo's Aptos campus on either Tuesday, March 4 from 3:00 p.m. -5:00 p.m. in room 426, or Saturday, March 15 from 1:00 p.m. -3:00 p.m. in room 405. Or visit:
