Cabrillo College Dance Department Presents Annual Winter Dance Concert

November 30 through December 1 at the Cabrillo Crocker Theater

APTOS, CA—The Cabrillo College Dance Department is proud to present their annual winter concert, an evening of original and diverse dance works created by guest, faculty and invited student choreographers. Cabrillo student dancers will perform exuberant new choreography in an exciting mix of contemporary techniques and styles, from popping and locking to post-modern physical theater.

This year's concert features special performances by members of the Cal State East Bay Touring Company with choreography by CSUEB dance professor Nina Haft. Local choreographers creating work for the concert include Robert Kelley, David King, Amy Farhood, Cid Pearlman, Molly Katzman, Holly Lampe, and Dixie FunLee Shulman.

The dances on the program showcase the variety of dance forms taught at Cabrillo, from ballet to Hip Hop. The Cabrillo Winter Dance Concert gives students an opportunity to participate in the artistic process of dance making and practice performing in front of hundreds of audience members. This year, eleven of the dancers have had the opportunity to work with Robert Kelley, the director of Santa Cruz Ballet Theater. The concert will also feature new work by choreographer and FLEX company member Molly Katzman. Cabrillo faculty members David King and Cid Pearlman, who co-produce the concert, are each creating a new works for this year's concert as well. Amy Farhood-Sterling brings together students from her Watsonville and Aptos classes in her exciting Salsa extravaganzas.
