Cabrillo College Theatre Arts Department Presents Festival of Local Theatre Groups
Festival runs April 19 - May 12 in the Cabrillo Black Box Theater

Aptos, CA— Cabrillo College's Theatre Arts Department will present a festival of plays, storytelling and improvisation from the local theatre community in collaboration with Cabrillo students.

With over 30 local theatre companies in Santa Cruz County producing plays on a regular basis, Cabrillo Theatre Arts is celebrating the theatre community by bringing some of these companies onto campus to work with students and perform in Cabrillo’s Black Box Theater, which is an intimate theatre-in-the-round that is rarely, if ever, experienced in Santa Cruz theatre.

The Cabrillo Theatre Festival will present nine different shows, each performing multiple times between April 19 and May 12. These shows include:

Friends of Gus presents “Eleanora Duse Dies in Pittsburgh” by Don Nigro, directed by Robin Aronson

Lampshade Productions presents “Handy Dandy” by William Gibson, directed by Scott Kravitz

“Believe It Or Not,” storytelling written and performed by Erica Lann-Clark and Olga Loya

SEETheatre presents “Turn of the Screw” by Jeffrey Hatcher from story by Henry James, directed by Brian Spencer

Van Antwerp Theatre Company presents “Blackbird” by David Harrower, directed by Joan Van Antwerp

“Death,” by Woody Allen, directed by Cabrillo Theatre student Adam Stanton

Improv Troupe UM GEE UM

Rainbow Theatre Company presents “Breath, Boom” by Kia Corthron, directed by Karmina Mendez and Dondre Coleman
