Cabrillo College Announces New Summer Classes at Scotts Valley Campus and Watsonville Center

Summer Session Begins June 17 – Space Remains in All Classes

APTOS, CA — Cabrillo College today announces that it is offering new Summer Session classes at its Scotts Valley campus (184 Whispering Pines Dr., Scotts Valley) and its Watsonville Center (318 Union St., Watsonville). Summer Session begins on June 17 and all Summer Session classes at both locations have availability.

For the first time in several years, Summer Session classes return to the Cabrillo College Scotts Valley campus. The following classes are being offered in Scotts Valley this summer:

English 1A – College Composition
Monday – Thursday, from 9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

General Psychology
Monday – Thursday, 9:00 a.m. – 12:20 p.m.

Spanish 1 – Beginning Spanish
Monday – Thursday, 9:00 a.m. – 12:05 p.m.

The Watsonville Center historically has a robust summer schedule and this year is offering 29 Summer Session classes, all of which have availability. A new class being offered for the first time is Art 4, Color and Design. The class is ideal for anyone interested in animation, cartooning, interior design, fashion design, architectural and landscape design. In it, students will learn about the Elements of Art and the historical and cultural context of design with instructor Margaret Rinkovsky. Art 4, Color and Design runs from June 17 through July 25, from 12:30 – 5p.m.

Ms. Rinkovsky received her Master of Fine Arts degree from UCLA. She has taught studio arts and art history at several Bay Area schools, including Stanford, Cal State and UCSC. She is a recipient of the prestigious S.E.C.A. Award from the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art and a nominee to the American Academy of Art in New York. Margaret Rinkovsky has exhibited nationally and has had numerous solo exhibitions, including, "Descent from Pacifica," at the SFMMA, "Temporal Structure," at the San Jose Institute of Contemporary Art, and "The Odyssey Landscapes Reconsidered," at the Museum of Art and History in Santa Cruz.
