The Cabrillo College Dance Department Presents the Spring Dance Concert
Dance Concert May 6-8, at Cabrillo College Crocker Theater

APTOS – The 2016 Cabrillo Spring Dance Concert presents fresh new works by emerging Cabrillo student choreographers and faculty dance premieres. Dance faculty member and professional choreographer, Rhonda Martyn, creates a premiere to the music of U2, while the contributions of talented young Cabrillo College choreographers and dancers encompass a vibrant spectrum of dance styles. Always an audience favorite, Cabrillo Dance faculty Amy Farhood has created two new dances with her Watsonville Salsa Repertory class. The Integrated dance class returns to the Crocker Stage, under the direction of faculty choreographer Sharon Took-Zozaya.

With new works choreographed in the Hip Hop, Salsa, Jazz, Bachata, Street, experimental and contemporary dance traditions, this event is both a celebration of dance in Santa Cruz County and great fun at an affordable price.
