

Learning Community Programs in which students are enrolled in TWO OR MORE courses together:

Program	Requirements, Benefits, Goal	Start	Length	Contact
ACE <sup>1</sup>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Assess at Reading 205 or higher</li> <li>Curriculum focused on Social Justice, Leadership and Management or Integrated Science; opportunity for acceleration from English 255 to 1A</li> <li>Prepare in one semester to be successful in college-level classes</li> </ul>	Fall or spring	One semester	Learning Communities Center Aptos office (501): (831) 477-3340 Watsonville office (A100): (831) 786-4764
AMAP <sup>2</sup>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Commit to enroll full time in the Medical Assisting program for two years: successfully complete prescribed selection of courses each semester</li> <li>Timely completion of program with the skills employers require</li> <li>Finish Medical Assisting certificate and externship in two years</li> </ul>	Fall or spring	Two years	Pamela Sanborn, MA Program Chair HW2146 (831) 479-6438 pasanbor@cabrillo.edu
Puente	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Eligible to take English 100 in fall; plan to transfer to 4-year university; enroll in English 1AMC in spring</li> <li>Designated counselor, professional mentor, university tours and other program activities; focus on U.S. Latino/a experience</li> <li>Increase transfer rate of underrepresented students</li> </ul>	Fall	One year	Rudy Puente, Counselor Student Activities Center, Rm. 135 (831) 479-6541 ropuente@cabrillo.edu
REAL <sup>3</sup>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Assess at English 255 AND Reading 255</li> <li>Coordinated assignments between English 255 and the Reading 255 co-requisite class; in-class meetings with academic counselor</li> <li>Improve and strengthen reading and writing skills</li> </ul>	Fall or spring (when offered)	One semester	Business, English and Language Arts Division Office, rm. 301 (831) 479-6400
SMP <sup>4</sup>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Qualify for services from Migrant Education as high school junior or senior. (Seats for the general population may be available.)</li> <li>Improve English composition and reading skills in a computer lab setting</li> <li>Increase college attendance for migrant farmworker youth</li> </ul>	Summer	Summer session	Vera Romandía, EOPS Outreach Specialist EOP&S office, rm 907 & 910 (831) 479-6305 veromand@cabrillo.edu
STARS <sup>5</sup>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Have completed fewer than 12 units at Cabrillo; assess at 200 or 100 level in English AND math</li> <li>First Year Experience with career exploration; extra support in math</li> <li>Increase success of first year students taking pre-transfer level classes</li> </ul>	Summer B ridge	One year	Eric Grabiél, FYE Coordinator Learning Communities Center, rm. 501 (831) 477-3293 ergrabie@cabrillo.edu
Transfer Pathways	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Eligible to take English 1A and Math 12; be recommended by high school counselor; interest in transfer to 4-year university; make satisfactory progress each semester</li> <li>Guaranteed seats for two years in classes necessary for AA degree and transfer (History or Anthropology)</li> <li>Transfer to 4-year university in two years (History or Anthropology)</li> </ul>	Fall 2012	Two years	Cabrillo College counselors Enrollment Services, Building 100 Appointments: (831) 479-6274

<sup>1</sup> Academy for College Excellence. Inquiries may also be sent to ACE Program Director Vicki Fabbri at vifabbri@cabrillo.edu.

<sup>2</sup> Accelerated Medical Assisting Program

<sup>3</sup> Reading and English Academic Learning

<sup>4</sup> EOPS Summer Migrant Program

<sup>5</sup> Students Transitioning in Academics and Reaching Success

Learning Community Programs in which students are enrolled in ONE OR MORE courses together:

Program Name	Requirements, Benefits, Goal	Contact
ACCESS <sup>6</sup>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Enrollment in biology and/or chemistry classes; complete Chemistry 1A with C or better for summer program at UCSC</li> <li>• Supplemental instruction, monthly talks by researchers &amp; practitioners in sciences, summer and winter programs at UCSC</li> <li>• Assist historically underrepresented students transfer to university in biology and chemistry; special focus on biomedical research</li> </ul>	Pam D'Arcey, ACCESS Coordinator Room 619 (831) 477-5620 padarcey@cabrillo.edu
Honors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Assess at transfer level in English; 3.5 high school GPA or 1900 SAT or 29 ACT test score, or 3.3 cumulative college-level GPA; apply to Honors Transfer program</li> <li>• Research, writing, seminar-style courses which are more academically demanding and mirror the university experience; Honors Scholar designation on transcript with completion of 15 units of Honors courses</li> <li>• Provide students with a competitive edge at transfer and priority admission into the most-competitive UC's</li> </ul>	Carolyn Jackson, Director, Articulation & Honors Transfer Program Room 105 (831) 477-3505 cajackso@cabrillo.edu
MESA <sup>7</sup>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Eligible to take intermediate algebra (math 152) or above, following a course of study toward transfer in a science major that involves at least one calculus class</li> <li>• Academic excellence workshops, drop-in tutoring, designated counselor, computer lab, speakers, scholarships, internships, field trips, student retreats and other activities</li> <li>• Increase success and transfer rates in mathematics, engineering and science majors</li> </ul>	Sue Tappero, MESA Director Room 714-A (831) 479-5785 sue.tappero@cabrillo.edu
STEM <sup>8</sup>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Complete an educational plan with a counselor for a STEM major (Science, Technology, Math or Engineering)</li> <li>• Combined academic and counseling support services; assistance in applying for scholarships, financial aid and internships; SummerBridge program; visits to transfer universities, tours of STEM companies, and presentations by STEM professionals</li> <li>• Increase transfer rate in STEM fields for underrepresented students</li> </ul>	Kelli Horner, STEM Coordinator Room 715-B (831) 477-3235 kehorner@cabrillo.edu
Supernova	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• GPA over 3.0, financial need based on FAFSA, application to program, full time enrollment as Physics major, completion of all requirements to transfer to UCSC in physics or astrophysics</li> <li>• $5,000 in last year of Cabrillo and $10,000 per year for 2 years at UCSC to degree completion</li> <li>• Increase number of underrepresented students completing BA in physics or astrophysics</li> </ul>	Joe McCullough, Physics Program Chair Room 826-B (831) 479-6521 jomccull@cabrillo.edu

<sup>6</sup>Advancing Community College Education for Science

<sup>7</sup> Mathematics, Engineering and Science Achievement

<sup>8</sup> Science, Technology, Engineering & Math