Welcome veterans! We are honored to have veterans on campus and look forward to their continued success here. For some veterans, going back to school can present unique challenges. If that is true for you, remember that you do not have to face these challenges on your own. We are here to help. Please feel free to discuss any questions or concerns you may have about the curriculum, the assignments, or your academic program with me in person. Thank you for your service, and, for those of you who deployed, welcome home!

From the American Council on Education (slightly edited)

“Students with disabilities are encouraged to contact me privately to discuss any accommodation needs. XXXX College ensures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students (DSS). Should you have a disability, or think you might have a disability, including unseen disabilities such as learning disabilities, psychological health disabilities (such as PTSD), or cognitive disabilities (such as Traumatic Brain Injury), that requires reasonable accommodations, please contact the Office of Disability Services on campus. I would be more than happy to help you with that referral if needed.
