

Cabrillo College's Honors Transfer Program Presents:

Frankenstein:

200th Anniversary Celebration
Lightning Talks

How does technology define us?

What does it mean to be human?

How do women resist marginalization?

What can we learn from the outcast?

These are all questions sparked by Mary Shelley's celebrated and widely-taught novel, Frankenstein. Join us for lightning interactive lectures that will explore these and other issues.

Featured Faculty:

- Robin McFarland, Biology/Anatomy
- Conrad Scott-Curtis, English
- Letitia Scott-Curtis, English
- Steve Schessler, English

Date: Wednesday, April
18th, 2018

Time: 5:00-6:30 p.m.

Location: Santa Cruz MAH
Atrium, 705 Front Street,
Downtown

This is a free event!

Questions?

Contact Letitia Scott-Curtis, Lead
Honors Faculty, Cabrillo College
E-mail: lescott@cabrillo.edu
Phone: 831-479-6353

Following the MAH event, please join us for a 7:00 p.m. film screening of National Theater Live: Frankenstein featuring
Benedict Cumberbatch at the Nickelodeon!

Tickets for the movie are $15/person. To buy tickets online:
<https://www.landmarktheatres.com/santa-cruz/nickelodeon-theatre>
and check out the "Coming Soon" tab

Nickelodeon Theatre is located at 210 Lincoln Street, walking distance from the MAH