American pianist Chetan Tierra will perform works by Clementi, Brahms, Tchaikovsky and Mussorgsky Sunday at Cabrillo College as part of its Distinguished Artists Concert & Lecture Series.

Tierra is known for his focused artistry and ability to let his music stand on its own. He has been performing in North America and Europe since he was 6 years old and made his Carnegie Hall debut in November 2006. Tierra has played with the Santa Cruz Symphony and the Cleveland Institute of Music Orchestra. He lives in Cleveland and is completing his studies at the Cleveland Institute of Music.

The performance will take place at the Cabrillo College Visual and Performing Arts Music Recital Hall at 6500 Soquel Drive in Aptos. Tickets cost between $14 and $25 and may be purchased at the Cabrillo box office, Building 2100 A, by calling 479-6331, or at www.ticketguys.com. For information, visit www.distinguishedartists.org.
