Cabrillo volleyball suffers first loss

Sentinel staff report

Cabrillo College's women's volleyball team suffered its first loss of the season, 25-23, 25-19, 21-25, 25-18, at Foothill on Wednesday in a nonconference match. The injury-plagued Seahawks [23-1] rested starting setter Brook Carroll and starting right side Alekia Mondragon as they prepare for the NorCal playoffs beginning Nov. 23. Carroll is nursing a rotator cuff injury and Mondragon sat with a strained hamstring.

Chloe Tushar made 16 kills and 14 digs for Cabrillo, which won the Coast Conference South title with a 10-0 record. Ally Russo added 12 kills and 17 digs and Michelle Meyer made 31 digs.

Cabrillo plays today at 6:30 p.m. at Skyline and closes out the regular season Wednesday at home against De Anza.
