Casting agent contributes at Cabrillo theater workshops

This year's Cabrillo Theatre Arts Department Annual High School Workshops titled, "Stage Door," will host Hollywood casting director Judy Bouley as its special guest.

The workshops run 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sept. 24 in the Cabrillo Crocker Theater Building, 6500 Soquel Drive, Aptos.

Bouley will join other guest instructors and Cabrillo faculty in sharing their wisdom and experience with students at the fifth annual event.

Among the topics she'll discuss: keys to successful cold readings for the camera, resume writing and how to choose the best headshot.

Bouley, a Santa Cruz resident of 30 years, has been a casting director for more than 25 years, both nationally and internationally.

Her film credits include The Lost Boys, Larry Crowne, Polar Express, Road To Perdition, Bandits, Love and Other Drugs, What Women Want, The Perfect Storm, Basic Instinct, Evita, Contact and Star Trek IV.

Additionally, Bouley has taught a number of audition seminars.

Students may attend four workshops throughout the day. Their choices are: Bouley's Successful Auditioning, Improvisation, Lighting, Set Design, Props Construction, Unarmed Combat, Costume Design & Construction, Acting for the Camera, Voice for Musical Theatre, Comedy and Auditioning.

Registration is $35 and must be made by Saturday. Parental consent is required. Teachers can participate for free if they attend with their students.
