Cabrillo women drop opener

Sentinel staff report

The Cabrillo College women's soccer team lost its season opener to visiting City College of San Francisco 3-1 in a non-conference game Friday.

Stephanie Barragan scored the opening goal in the 18th minute for CCSF. Emily Palmer scored the equalizer for the Seahawks on a corner kick in the closing seconds of the first half. Yvette Flores and Tera Piserchio each scored unassisted goals in the first 15 minutes of the second half to cap off the Rams' 3-1 victory. Alyssa Rush and Lily Garza split goalkeeping duties for CCSF [2-0].

For Cabrillo, Jasmin Juarez and Sara Ostlund each logged four saves after playing 45 minutes in the net. The Seahawks [0-1] will host Ventura college at 1:30 p.m. on Sept. 11.
