

LOCAL ROUNDUP

Cabrillo volleyball finishes undefeated in conference

Harbor girls volleyball sweeps SLV in quarterfinals

Sentinel staff report

The Cabrillo College women's volleyball team wrapped up an undefeated Coast Conference season with a 25-11, 25-14, 25-13 sweep over host West Valley College on Wednesday.

Kaitlyn Shaugh hit .786 with a team-high 11 kills for the Seahawks and Tori Bozzo followed with 10 kills. Brooke Carroll collected 32 assists and Caitlin Macleod had four aces to go with 12 digs.

Cabrillo [22-1, 10-0 CC] hosts Community College of San Francisco at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in the first of three out-of-division matches — or “crossovers” — serving as tuneups for the NorCal regional tournament later this month.

GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

Harbor High rode a superb serving game to a three-set sweep of visiting San Lorenzo Valley, 25-12, 25-20, 25-16, in the Santa Cruz Coast Athletic League Tournament quarterfinals.

The Pirates' Grace Thompson and Molly Tobin each whacked eight aces and Myrriah Crowley added five more. Thompson also had a team-high nine kills and Tobin matched Morgan Matias with seven kills apiece.

Harbor [18-16] plays Aptos today at 6 p.m. at Aptos High in the semifinals.

GIRLS WATER POLO

Scotts Valley beat Watsonville 10-9 in double-overtime in the Tri-County Athletic League Valley Division Tournament.

Trinity Sieraski had four goals and Amara Green added three for the Wildcatz [3-15].

The Falcons advance to play Notre Dame-Salinas at 5:15 p.m. today at Alvarado High.

BOYS WATER POLO

Watsonville suffered a 15-4 loss to visiting Gilroy in the second round of the TCAL Valley Tournament.

Kasem Green scored twice and Philip Major and Gabriel Sanchez both added a goal each for the Wildcatz [0-15].

SETTING IT STRAIGHT

A photo of San Lorenzo Valley High cross country runner Anna Maxwell on D1 on Wednesday was taken by Sentinel staff photographer Shmuel Thaler. The photographer was incorrectly identified.