

Jack Scainetti, second from right, sits with fellow Cabrillo College Class of 2011 graduates. At age 84, he was the year's oldest graduate, earning an associate's degree.

Cabrillo Honors Graduates

Cabrillo College presented 990 students with associate degrees and certificates at its June 3 graduation ceremony.

Two-thirds of the graduates maintained at least a 3.0 grade point average (B) to earn an honorable mention, with 241 earning high honors for GPAs of at least 3.75.

The students ranged in age from 18 to 84.