

APTOS

Cabrillo College welcomes new deans

GRAULTY*O'CONNOR

Cabrillo College has two new deans: John Grauly is dean of the Visual, Applied and Performing Arts Division, and Isabel O'Connor is dean of the Human Arts and Social Sciences Division.

Grauly, formerly dean of fine arts, humanities and social sciences at Merced Community College, is a former U.S. Air Force conductor. He has led performances at the Leipzig Gewandhaus, Royal Albert Hall in London and the Red Army Theater in Moscow.

O'Connor was program chair and associate professor of history at Indiana University at South Bend. She has authored several articles examining the interaction between Muslims, Jews and Christians in 13th century Spain. O'Connor received the Indiana University South Bend Distinguished Teaching Award, Trustees Teaching Award and was admitted to the Indiana University Faculty Colloquium for Excellence in Teaching.