The fourth annual Maude Meehan Memorial Poetry Reading kicks off Saturday featuring Chase Twichell, who has published seven books of poetry including the latest, from Copper Canyon Press, titled “Horses Where Answers Should Have Been.” The spouse of novelist Russell Banks has also published in such periodicals as the New Yorker, the Yale Review and others.

[SATURDAY 7:30 p.m.; Forum 450, Cabrillo College, Aptos; Free; 464-8983]