Annual winter dance concert presented at Cabrillo

APTOS — The Cabrillo College Dance Department will present its annual winter concert, an evening of original and diverse dance works created by guest, faculty and invited student choreographers, Friday and Saturday at the Cabrillo Crocker Theater at 7:30 p.m., and Sunday at 2 p.m.

Cabrillo student dancers will perform new choreography in a mix of contemporary techniques and styles, from popping and locking to post-modern physical theater.

This year’s concert features performances by members of the Cal State East Bay Touring Company with choreography by CSUEB dance professor Nina Haft. Local choreographers creating work for the concert include Robert Kelley, David King, Amy Farhood, Cid Pearlman, Molly Katzman, Holly Lampe and Dixie FunLee Shulman.

The dances on the program showcase the variety of dance forms taught at Cabrillo, from ballet to hip hop. The Cabrillo Winter Dance Concert gives students an opportunity to participate in the artistic process of dance making and practice performing in front of hundreds of audience members.

This year, 11 of the dancers have had the opportunity to work with Robert Kelley, the director of Santa Cruz Ballet Theater. The concert will also feature new work by choreographer and FLEX company member Molly Katzman. Cabrillo faculty members David King and Cid Pearlman, who co-produce the concert, are each creating a new works for this year’s concert as well.

Admission costs $14 general, $12 students and seniors and $10 with student activity card. Tickets can be purchased at www.cabrillovapa.com or 479-6154.
