Cabrillo College senior Melissa Guzman-Bruce was honored at a commencement ceremony on May 18. Guzman-Bruce, who graduated with an associate degree in business, was one of 1,076 students to receive a degree. The ceremony was held in the college's gym.

Guzman-Bruce is the first of four children. She was born in Mexico and moved to the United States at the age of three. She attended schools in the United States and graduated from South High School in 2004.

Guzman-Bruce is currently enrolled in the Business Administration program at Cabrillo College. She plans to transfer to the University of California, Santa Cruz, to continue her education.

In her spare time, Guzman-Bruce enjoys cooking and playing basketball. She is an active member of the Phi Theta Kappa honor society and the Business Administration Club. She also volunteers at a local community center.

The ceremony was attended by family, friends, and college officials. Cabrillo President Dr. Paul Martinez said, "We are very proud of our graduates and the achievements they have made. Cabrillo is committed to providing a quality education to our students, and we are always looking for ways to improve our programs."
