Register - Pajaronian

Young Olympian grows up quickly
Kyla Ross, 15, named to the U.S. women’s Olympic gymnastics team
Sports - C1

Taking the oath

Santa Cruz County welcomes 60 new citizens during ceremony

By TODD GUILD
of the Register-Pajaronian

APTOPIX - New公民 coming to the United States from Guadalajara, Mexico, Ana Gonzalez believed that sending her family to be sworn in as naturalized citizens would be a way to support them.

"My family was struggling," she said. "There were no jobs."

Gonzalez joined 59 other new citizens from 15 countries Monday at a swearing-in ceremony at Cabrillo College in Aptos, just days before the

We came to find opportunity, and we found it.

-Aris Gonzalez, new American citizen

Santa Cruz County celebrates its independence on July 4. Those in turn joined more than 4,000 people at 40 ceremonies across the country. Each year, the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services offers new citizens an opportunity to make the declaration of allegiance and commit to the values of the United States.

Santa Cruz County Sheriff Joel Rodriguez reminds new citizens of their newfound responsibilities.

Marty Parme of Watsonville takes the oath to become a citizen.

Marty Parme of Watsonville takes the oath to become a citizen.

Citizens

From page A4

Services sworn in approximately 500 new citizens.

With small flags waving and their certificates in hand, the new citizens eagerly lifted their heads and raised their right hands to take the oath of allegiance.

"I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States of America and adhere to the principles which it contains andHW.

"We came to find opportunity, and we found it."

-Aris Gonzalez, new American citizen

Aris Gonzalez, a new citizen from Mexico, stands with her husband and children after being sworn in.

Santa Cruz County welcomes 60 new citizens during ceremony

By TODD GUILD
of the Register-Pajaronian

APTOPIX - New citizens coming to the United States from Guadalajara, Mexico, Ana Gonzalez believed that sending her family to be sworn in as naturalized citizens would be a way to support them.

"My family was struggling," she said. "There were no jobs."

Gonzalez joined 59 other new citizens from 15 countries Monday at a swearing-in ceremony at Cabrillo College in Aptos, just days before the

We came to find opportunity, and we found it.

-Aris Gonzalez, new American citizen

We came to find opportunity, and we found it.

We came to find opportunity, and we found it.

Aris Gonzalez, new American citizen

Santa Cruz County celebrates its independence on July 4. Those in turn joined more than 4,000 people at 40 ceremonies across the country. Each year, the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services offers new citizens an opportunity to make the declaration of allegiance and commit to the values of the United States.

Santa Cruz County Sheriff Joel Rodriguez reminds new citizens of their newfound responsibilities.

Marty Parme of Watsonville takes the oath to become a citizen.

Citizens

From page A4

Services sworn in approximately 500 new citizens.

With small flags waving and their certificates in hand, the new citizens eagerly lifted their heads and raised their right hands to take the oath of allegiance.

"I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States of America and adhere to the principles which it contains and

"We came to find opportunity, and we found it."

-Aris Gonzalez, new American citizen

Santa Cruz County celebrates its independence on July 4. Those in turn joined more than 4,000 people at 40 ceremonies across the country. Each year, the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services offers new citizens an opportunity to make the declaration of allegiance and commit to the values of the United States.

Santa Cruz County Sheriff Joel Rodriguez reminds new citizens of their newfound responsibilities.

Marty Parme of Watsonville takes the oath to become a citizen.

Citizens

From page A4

Services sworn in approximately 500 new citizens.

With small flags waving and their certificates in hand, the new citizens eagerly lifted their heads and raised their right hands to take the oath of allegiance.

"I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States of America and adhere to the principles which it contains and

"We came to find opportunity, and we found it."

-Aris Gonzalez, new American citizen

Santa Cruz County celebrates its independence on July 4. Those in turn joined more than 4,000 people at 40 ceremonies across the country. Each year, the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services offers new citizens an opportunity to make the declaration of allegiance and commit to the values of the United States.

Santa Cruz County Sheriff Joel Rodriguez reminds new citizens of their newfound responsibilities.

Marty Parme of Watsonville takes the oath to become a citizen.

Citizens

From page A4

Services sworn in approximately 500 new citizens.

With small flags waving and their certificates in hand, the new citizens eagerly lifted their heads and raised their right hands to take the oath of allegiance.

"I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States of America and adhere to the principles which it contains and

"We came to find opportunity, and we found it."

-Aris Gonzalez, new American citizen

Santa Cruz County celebrates its independence on July 4. Those in turn joined more than 4,000 people at 40 ceremonies across the country. Each year, the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services offers new citizens an opportunity to make the declaration of allegiance and commit to the values of the United States.

Santa Cruz County Sheriff Joel Rodriguez reminds new citizens of their newfound responsibilities.

Marty Parme of Watsonville takes the oath to become a citizen.

Citizens

From page A4

Services sworn in approximately 500 new citizens.

With small flags waving and their certificates in hand, the new citizens eagerly lifted their heads and raised their right hands to take the oath of allegiance.

"I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States of America and adhere to the principles which it contains and

"We came to find opportunity, and we found it."

-Aris Gonzalez, new American citizen

Santa Cruz County celebrates its independence on July 4. Those in turn joined more than 4,000 people at 40 ceremonies across the country. Each year, the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services offers new citizens an opportunity to make the declaration of allegiance and commit to the values of the United States.

Santa Cruz County Sheriff Joel Rodriguez reminds new citizens of their newfound responsibilities.

Marty Parme of Watsonville takes the oath to become a citizen.

Citizens

From page A4

Services sworn in approximately 500 new citizens.

With small flags waving and their certificates in hand, the new citizens eagerly lifted their heads and raised their right hands to take the oath of allegiance.

"I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States of America and adhere to the principles which it contains and

"We came to find opportunity, and we found it."

-Aris Gonzalez, new American citizen

Santa Cruz County celebrates its independence on July 4. Those in turn joined more than 4,000 people at 40 ceremonies across the country. Each year, the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services offers new citizens an opportunity to make the declaration of allegiance and commit to the values of the United States.

Santa Cruz County Sheriff Joel Rodriguez reminds new citizens of their newfound responsibilities.

Marty Parme of Watsonville takes the oath to become a citizen.