Despite trailing 34-31 at halftime, Santa Cruz rallied in the second half to claim a share of the Central Coast Section crown. Sophomore Miller Clark (140 pounds), a transfer from San Antonio, and Mitch Gearing (172 pounds), a transfer from Harbor, both scored pins for the Rams to give them a 10-2 victory over host North Salinas.

Hightower also had seven takedowns on the exterior of the circle, including two that occurred on the mat. Sophomore Alex Marquez (287) finished in the top 10 of the Breaking News category. Jag and Seimas also finished in the top 10 of the Breaking News category. Jag scored 37 of her 49 points in the second half.

The Rams entered the tournament ranked fourth in the state, behind Harbor (93.5), Soquel (80) and Sacred Heart Prep (680). They will look to continue their success in the CIF tournament, where they have advanced to the Central Coast Section championship since 1998 for the third straight year.

Local Santa Cruz surfer Zoltan Torkos claims to have completely finished the first heat on a surfboard above and behind the surf line. He says he is going to be in attendance at the event, which will be held on the UCSC West Field House on Friday.

Despite trailing 34-31 at halftime, Santa Cruz rallied in the second half to claim a share of the Central Coast Section title. Sophomore Miller Clark (140 pounds), a transfer from San Antonio, and Mitch Gearing (172 pounds), a transfer from Harbor, both scored pins for the Rams to give them a 10-2 victory over host North Salinas.

The Rams entered the tournament ranked fourth in the state, behind Harbor (93.5), Soquel (80) and Sacred Heart Prep (680). They will look to continue their success in the CIF tournament, where they have advanced to the Central Coast Section championship since 1998 for the third straight year.

Local Santa Cruz surfer Zoltan Torkos claims to have completely finished the first heat on a surfboard above and behind the surf line. He says he is going to be in attendance at the event, which will be held on the UCSC West Field House on Friday.

Despite trailing 34-31 at halftime, Santa Cruz rallied in the second half to claim a share of the Central Coast Section title. Sophomore Miller Clark (140 pounds), a transfer from San Antonio, and Mitch Gearing (172 pounds), a transfer from Harbor, both scored pins for the Rams to give them a 10-2 victory over host North Salinas.

The Rams entered the tournament ranked fourth in the state, behind Harbor (93.5), Soquel (80) and Sacred Heart Prep (680). They will look to continue their success in the CIF tournament, where they have advanced to the Central Coast Section championship since 1998 for the third straight year.

Local Santa Cruz surfer Zoltan Torkos claims to have completely finished the first heat on a surfboard above and behind the surf line. He says he is going to be in attendance at the event, which will be held on the UCSC West Field House on Friday.

Despite trailing 34-31 at halftime, Santa Cruz rallied in the second half to claim a share of the Central Coast Section title. Sophomore Miller Clark (140 pounds), a transfer from San Antonio, and Mitch Gearing (172 pounds), a transfer from Harbor, both scored pins for the Rams to give them a 10-2 victory over host North Salinas.

The Rams entered the tournament ranked fourth in the state, behind Harbor (93.5), Soquel (80) and Sacred Heart Prep (680). They will look to continue their success in the CIF tournament, where they have advanced to the Central Coast Section championship since 1998 for the third straight year.

Local Santa Cruz surfer Zoltan Torkos claims to have completely finished the first heat on a surfboard above and behind the surf line. He says he is going to be in attendance at the event, which will be held on the UCSC West Field House on Friday.

Despite trailing 34-31 at halftime, Santa Cruz rallied in the second half to claim a share of the Central Coast Section title. Sophomore Miller Clark (140 pounds), a transfer from San Antonio, and Mitch Gearing (172 pounds), a transfer from Harbor, both scored pins for the Rams to give them a 10-2 victory over host North Salinas.

The Rams entered the tournament ranked fourth in the state, behind Harbor (93.5), Soquel (80) and Sacred Heart Prep (680). They will look to continue their success in the CIF tournament, where they have advanced to the Central Coast Section championship since 1998 for the third straight year.

Local Santa Cruz surfer Zoltan Torkos claims to have completely finished the first heat on a surfboard above and behind the surf line. He says he is going to be in attendance at the event, which will be held on the UCSC West Field House on Friday.

Despite trailing 34-31 at halftime, Santa Cruz rallied in the second half to claim a share of the Central Coast Section title. Sophomore Miller Clark (140 pounds), a transfer from San Antonio, and Mitch Gearing (172 pounds), a transfer from Harbor, both scored pins for the Rams to give them a 10-2 victory over host North Salinas.

The Rams entered the tournament ranked fourth in the state, behind Harbor (93.5), Soquel (80) and Sacred Heart Prep (680). They will look to continue their success in the CIF tournament, where they have advanced to the Central Coast Section championship since 1998 for the third straight year.

Local Santa Cruz surfer Zoltan Torkos claims to have completely finished the first heat on a surfboard above and behind the surf line. He says he is going to be in attendance at the event, which will be held on the UCSC West Field House on Friday.

Despite trailing 34-31 at halftime, Santa Cruz rallied in the second half to claim a share of the Central Coast Section title. Sophomore Miller Clark (140 pounds), a transfer from San Antonio, and Mitch Gearing (172 pounds), a transfer from Harbor, both scored pins for the Rams to give them a 10-2 victory over host North Salinas.

The Rams entered the tournament ranked fourth in the state, behind Harbor (93.5), Soquel (80) and Sacred Heart Prep (680). They will look to continue their success in the CIF tournament, where they have advanced to the Central Coast Section championship since 1998 for the third straight year.

Local Santa Cruz surfer Zoltan Torkos claims to have completely finished the first heat on a surfboard above and behind the surf line. He says he is going to be in attendance at the event, which will be held on the UCSC West Field House on Friday.

Despite trailing 34-31 at halftime, Santa Cruz rallied in the second half to claim a share of the Central Coast Section title. Sophomore Miller Clark (140 pounds), a transfer from San Antonio, and Mitch Gearing (172 pounds), a transfer from Harbor, both scored pins for the Rams to give them a 10-2 victory over host North Salinas.

The Rams entered the tournament ranked fourth in the state, behind Harbor (93.5), Soquel (80) and Sacred Heart Prep (680). They will look to continue their success in the CIF tournament, where they have advanced to the Central Coast Section championship since 1998 for the third straight year.

Local Santa Cruz surfer Zoltan Torkos claims to have completely finished the first heat on a surfboard above and behind the surf line. He says he is going to be in attendance at the event, which will be held on the UCSC West Field House on Friday.

Despite trailing 34-31 at halftime, Santa Cruz rallied in the second half to claim a share of the Central Coast Section title. Sophomore Miller Clark (140 pounds), a transfer from San Antonio, and Mitch Gearing (172 pounds), a transfer from Harbor, both scored pins for the Rams to give them a 10-2 victory over host North Salinas.

The Rams entered the tournament ranked fourth in the state, behind Harbor (93.5), Soquel (80) and Sacred Heart Prep (680). They will look to continue their success in the CIF tournament, where they have advanced to the Central Coast Section championship since 1998 for the third straight year.

Local Santa Cruz surfer Zoltan Torkos claims to have completely finished the first heat on a surfboard above and behind the surf line. He says he is going to be in attendance at the event, which will be held on the UCSC West Field House on Friday.
Despite trailing 34-18 at halftime, at home, the Santa Cruz Warriors forced a third quarter battle back to claim another home victory, 70-47 over No. 2 King City in the CCS-I Four. It was the Warriors’ first league victory of the season.

The Warriors entered the game averaging 20 points per quarter, but King City’s defense limited the Warriors to 5-17 shooting from the field in the fourth quarter, and 11-32 shooting from the field in the third quarter. The Warriors were able to score 84 points, the most of the season, in the second quarter.

The Warriors were led by Xavier Barlow, who finished with 24 points. Barlow also had nine rebounds and a steals for the Warriors, who are now 1-2 in the SCCAL. The Warriors will host the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals in their next league game on Thursday, February 21.

---

The Mustangs were able to win their third straight game in a row against the visitors from the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals. The Mustangs led 18-15 at halftime and pulled away to win 56-40.

Mike Verduzco, who finished with 15 points, led the offense for the Mustangs. The Mustangs, who are 10-10 overall and 5-3 in the SCCAL, will host the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals on Thursday, February 21.

---

The Mustangs were able to win their third straight game in a row against the visitors from the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals. The Mustangs led 18-15 at halftime and pulled away to win 56-40.

Mike Verduzco, who finished with 15 points, led the offense for the Mustangs. The Mustangs, who are 10-10 overall and 5-3 in the SCCAL, will host the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals on Thursday, February 21.

---

The Mustangs were able to win their third straight game in a row against the visitors from the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals. The Mustangs led 18-15 at halftime and pulled away to win 56-40.

Mike Verduzco, who finished with 15 points, led the offense for the Mustangs. The Mustangs, who are 10-10 overall and 5-3 in the SCCAL, will host the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals on Thursday, February 21.

---

The Mustangs were able to win their third straight game in a row against the visitors from the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals. The Mustangs led 18-15 at halftime and pulled away to win 56-40.

Mike Verduzco, who finished with 15 points, led the offense for the Mustangs. The Mustangs, who are 10-10 overall and 5-3 in the SCCAL, will host the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals on Thursday, February 21.

---

The Mustangs were able to win their third straight game in a row against the visitors from the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals. The Mustangs led 18-15 at halftime and pulled away to win 56-40.

Mike Verduzco, who finished with 15 points, led the offense for the Mustangs. The Mustangs, who are 10-10 overall and 5-3 in the SCCAL, will host the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals on Thursday, February 21.

---

The Mustangs were able to win their third straight game in a row against the visitors from the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals. The Mustangs led 18-15 at halftime and pulled away to win 56-40.

Mike Verduzco, who finished with 15 points, led the offense for the Mustangs. The Mustangs, who are 10-10 overall and 5-3 in the SCCAL, will host the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals on Thursday, February 21.

---

The Mustangs were able to win their third straight game in a row against the visitors from the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals. The Mustangs led 18-15 at halftime and pulled away to win 56-40.

Mike Verduzco, who finished with 15 points, led the offense for the Mustangs. The Mustangs, who are 10-10 overall and 5-3 in the SCCAL, will host the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals on Thursday, February 21.

---

The Mustangs were able to win their third straight game in a row against the visitors from the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals. The Mustangs led 18-15 at halftime and pulled away to win 56-40.

Mike Verduzco, who finished with 15 points, led the offense for the Mustangs. The Mustangs, who are 10-10 overall and 5-3 in the SCCAL, will host the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals on Thursday, February 21.

---

The Mustangs were able to win their third straight game in a row against the visitors from the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals. The Mustangs led 18-15 at halftime and pulled away to win 56-40.

Mike Verduzco, who finished with 15 points, led the offense for the Mustangs. The Mustangs, who are 10-10 overall and 5-3 in the SCCAL, will host the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals on Thursday, February 21.

---

The Mustangs were able to win their third straight game in a row against the visitors from the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals. The Mustangs led 18-15 at halftime and pulled away to win 56-40.

Mike Verduzco, who finished with 15 points, led the offense for the Mustangs. The Mustangs, who are 10-10 overall and 5-3 in the SCCAL, will host the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals on Thursday, February 21.

---

The Mustangs were able to win their third straight game in a row against the visitors from the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals. The Mustangs led 18-15 at halftime and pulled away to win 56-40.

Mike Verduzco, who finished with 15 points, led the offense for the Mustangs. The Mustangs, who are 10-10 overall and 5-3 in the SCCAL, will host the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals on Thursday, February 21.

---

The Mustangs were able to win their third straight game in a row against the visitors from the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals. The Mustangs led 18-15 at halftime and pulled away to win 56-40.

Mike Verduzco, who finished with 15 points, led the offense for the Mustangs. The Mustangs, who are 10-10 overall and 5-3 in the SCCAL, will host the Santa Cruz High School Cardinals on Thursday, February 21.