Silver surpasses 45-year-old mark

Raymond Silver wrapped up his career with a 45.50 high jump record last Sunday at the Arcadia Invitational in Arcadia. Silver cleared 6 feet, 6 inches to tie the marks that have stood for 45 years. John Smith set the record in 1968. Silver also took fifth in the triple jump (54-9 1/2), thirteenth in the 300 hurdles (41.33), and thirteenth in the 110 hurdles (15.13). Silver, who attended Arcadia High School, took sixth in the 60 meter hurdles (8.50) and set a personal record in the 300 hurdles (41.33).

Aptos volleyball wins gold division at NorCal Invitational

Raymond Ntale mapped out the NorCal Invitational’s 2-0 high jump record last February at the Decathlon Invitational in Cupertino.

Silver swept a field of 6, 6 inches, three inches higher than Browne’s record in the meet. Johnson recorded a 6-foot-8 in 2006, which also took fifth in the triple jump (49-0½). He was followed by Austin Owen of Sunnyvale, Ryan Guerra and Sam McAuliffe of Bellarmine.

But, the Mt. San Francisco Invitational that day at the Garlic Invitational, Johnson was second in the long jump with a personal record of 22-03.70 and finished fifth in the triple jump (49-0½) in a personal record 1:54.04.

Sarah Lawrence completed the pole vault for Aptos at the NorCal Invitational.

Boys volleyball

Boys volleyball reached the Division 3 NorCal Invitational final last year before falling 1-3 (9-25, 21-15, 26-25, 15-10) to Ayala Academy at Harbor City on Thursday.

Silver surfer spiked

Raymon Silver spiked Washington's 30-year-old high jump record Saturday at the Ann Arbor Invitational in Ohio. Silver, who has been in the top 6, 6 inches, shot the seventh of those three sky-high hits in the record book. Johnson continued his 2012 high jump season as well. In total, Silver also took fifth in the triple jump (30-3) and fifth in the 100 hurdles (14-7.19).
