Law mandates additional mammogram information

About 50 percent of women have dense breast tissue, and a new law taking effect Monday will require they be informed of the information.

Sen. Bill SB 38, for former state Sen. Joe Simian, requires all women to be given this information when they return for a mammogram.

The law was suggested by Alyce Cohen of Santa Cruz, a survivor. Cohen said she had breast cancer after four years of normal mammograms.

The law requires providers to give mammography information to patients who have a mammogram.

Residents learn about health care changes

Bulk of law takes effect in 2014

By TERRI MORGAN

Residents will have to learn about health care changes and possibly buy insurance.

The “Affordable Care Act,” passed in 2010, seeks to provide health insurance to all Americans.

The bulk of the law will start to take effect in January, 2014.

Some areas of the law will not change.

For instance, those with pre-existing medical conditions will be able to get insurance.

For information and answers to questions, call 1-800-318-2595.

AFFORDABLE CARE ACT

Residents learn about health care changes

By STEPHEN BAXTER

The Affordable Care Act, also known as Obamacare, is still generating a lot of buzz.

But the law is not all bad.

For instance, the law expands the “grandfathered” status for some health plans.

The law also expands Medicaid.

And several provisions help people get coverage.

Law mandates additional mammogram information

About 60 percent of women have dense breast tissue, a new law taking effect Monday will require they be informed about their risk of breast cancer.

Sen. Bill SB 838, for former state Sen. Joe Simin-glio, requires doctors to inform patients if they have dense breast tissue. Women with dense breasts may be at a higher risk for breast cancer.

The law was supported by Century ofCALA
Santa Cruz, a non-profit group.

Women on alohn soon alone with breast cancer after 10 years of normal mammograms mammograms would be notified of their high risk.

“Women have been told they are negative for breast cancer and then go on to develop breast cancer,” Simin- glio said.

Still, women who have dense breast tissue are more likely to develop breast cancer and develop breast cancer at a younger age. Women under 40 account for 17%. of all breast cancer cases, according to the American Cancer Society. For women over 40, 70% of breast cancer cases are diagnosed in women who have dense breast tissue.

Aviva Plans to enter the California health insurance market. The company will offer individual and family plans in the new private health insurance market created by the Affordable Care Act.

The Affordable Care Act, which is set to start next year, requires health insurers to cover a broad range of medical services, including mental health, prescription drugs and preventive care.

The act also creates a new tax on health insurers to help pay for the cost of the new insurance.

Aviva, based in the United Kingdom, has been a leading provider of health and life insurance in the United Kingdom for more than 160 years.

The company has over 13 million individual policyholders and more than 5 million organizational policyholders.

Aviva has a long-standing commitment to improving health and well-being in the communities where it operates.

Santa Cruz Warriors forward Mickell Gladness stuffs a shot by the Los Angeles D-Fenders during Friday night’s game.

The Coast Conference crossover game not only pitted the top teams in the conference — Cabrillo is in first place in the South Division, San Mateo is first in the North — but also provided enough of a hole to sink the Seahawks.

For the first time since 1994, Sierra Clark sends the ball speed into the break with a 6-4 win.

“We have to got to fin the ball over 27 times and shots, our plays — and you can’t dig ourselves in hole like we did tonight. “The Warriors compounded their struggles with poor free-throw shooting, only connecting on 14 of 22 free-throw attempts.

The game started as a stalemate, with neither team leading by more than six points through a quarter and a half. But the game tied at 41-41 in the first half, the D-Fenders went on a 9-0 run. Los Angeles D-Fenders vs. Santa Cruz Warriors at Kaiser Per.

SANTA CRUZ — The Santa Cruz Warriors find themselves in unfamiliar and uncharted territory heading into the final week of the regular season.

The Warriors have lost back-to-back home games for the first time since moving into Kaiser Permanente Arena after Fri- day night’s 110-104 loss to the Los Angeles D-Fenders in front of a sold-out crowd.

“We have to get to dig ourselves out of a hole before we came to a realization where we’re at,” said Warriors coach Nate Bjorkgren. “Our team leading by more than six points through three quarters, the game was tied at 41-41 in the first half, the D-Fenders went on a 9-0 run.
