rushing yards.

“For the first game this year, we had equal run and pass,” said Cabrillo quarterback Lucas Romanski. “We did really well on both and that’s why our offense was rolling as well as it did.”

The Seahawks wasted no time scoring. In their opening drive, Romanski hit wide receiver Dominic Bonner on a 37-yard touchdown pass that took all of four plays.

West Valley answered right back on its first possession of the game when quarterback Ryan Jones ran into the end zone from 1 yard out to tie things up at 7-7.

On Cabrillo’s ensuing drive Romanski connected once again with Bonner, this time for 8 yards. The special teams unit came through for the Seahawks when defensive back Hayden Young blocked a Vikings punt on West Valley’s own 25-yard line and wide receiver Kory Krivda scooped up the loose ball for a touchdown.

Romanski threw his third touchdown pass of the quarter when he found wide receiver Jon Jon Moore for a 62-yard pass to make it 28-14.

The Seahawks found themselves in the end zone once again in the second quarter when Moore scored his second touchdown of the night, this time from the hand of quarterback Brandon Layne.

Cabrillo added a field goal just before the half, as kicker Ben Knudson knocked in a 20-yard attempt to make it 38-21. Then there was no looking back.

But at the half, Seahawks coach Bill Garrison reminded his team to stay focused anyway.

“I talked to them about how to play,” Garrison said. “You have to be more focused when you are playing well or when you have a numerical advantage. You want to make sure they don’t lose focus on what you want to do.”

Romanski came back in the game for the second half to toss his fourth touchdown of the night. He finished the game with 128 yards on 7 of 9 attempts.

Freshman running back Najii Wilcox sealed the deal for the Seahawks by taking two runs into the end zone for 2 and 68 yards and finishing the night with 153 yards on 18 carries.

The defense played solid for the most part and forced the Vikings to turn the ball over once along with four straight three-and-outs possessions.
