New presidents provosts Cabrillo Carlow Cincinnati Columbus Tech Governors State Mount Royal NMSU Princeton

Submitted by Doug Lederman on August 6, 2013 - 3:00am

- Deborah Bordelon, [1] dean of graduate studies at Governors State University, in Illinois, has been promoted to provost and vice president for academic affairs there.
- Lorette Hoover, [2] president of Altamaha Technical College, in Georgia, has been named president of Columbus Technical College, also in Georgia.
- Dan Howard, [3] dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at the University of Colorado at Denver, has been appointed as executive vice president and provost at New Mexico State University.
- Laurel Jones, [4] president of Mission College, in California, has been named president and superintendent of Cabrillo College, also in California.
- David S. Lee, [5] professor of economics and public affairs and the director of the industrial relations section at Princeton University, has been selected as provost there.
- Suzanne K. Mellon, [6] executive vice president and professor of Saint Anselm College, in New Hampshire, has been chosen as president of Carlow University, in Pennsylvania.
- Kathryn Shailer, [7] dean of the Faculty of Liberal Arts & Sciences and the School of Interdisciplinary Studies at Ontario College of Art and Design, has been chosen as provost and vice president-academic at Mount Royal University, in Alberta.
- Beverly Davenport Sypher, [8] vice provost for faculty affairs at Purdue University, in Indiana, has been appointed senior vice president for academic affairs and provost at the University of Cincinnati, in Ohio.

Links: