‘In Celebration of the Muse’ marks 32nd year at Cabrillo

Sentinel staff report

One of Santa Cruz County’s most enduring literary traditions continues this weekend when more than 20 women writers and poets gather “In Celebration of the Muse.”

The event, now in its 32nd year, was designed to showcase the work of female writers and this year includes some of the community’s most prominent literary names, including Helene Simkin Jara, Neli Moody, Clifford Henderson, Kate Aver Avraham, Rosie King, Wilma Marcus Chandler and many others. A 30th anniversary chapbook anthology of the writers featured during the 2012 event will also be available at this year’s event.

“In Celebration of the Muse” takes place Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the Erica Schilling Forum 450, on the campus of Cabrillo College. The suggested donation is $10; Cabrillo College students, $5. Details: www.baymoon.com/-poetrysantacruz/Muse/MuseHome.html
