ALL THE WORLD’S A STAGE

Cabrillo College’s Theatre Arts Department will present “As You Like It.”

A romantic comedy, Shakespeare style

Cabrillo’s Theatre Arts Department set to perform ‘As You Like It’

Cousin Celia and Touchstone the court jester, to find safety and, eventually, love, in the Forest of Arden. The play features one of Shakespeare’s most famous and oft-quoted speeches, “All the world’s a stage,” and is the origin of the phrase “too much of a good thing.” The play has been adapted for radio, film, and musical theater.

Shakespeare’s romantic comedy will be uniquely staged in the Cabrillo production, with the audience being placed in close proximity to the actors, much like the theater-going experience of the Elizabethan-era production.

Sarah Albertson, director, and Skip Epperson, set designer, have collaborated on many environmental stagings in the past, most recently in the Cabrillo production of Chekhov’s “Three Sisters.”

A special student performance will take place on Friday, April 25 at 10 a.m.

Admission is $10 for adults, $7 for seniors/students, $12 children under 10, and $9 for Student Activity Card holders. Tickets can be purchased by calling 479-6154 or at www.cabrillovaga.com.
