Praiseworthy

formance; one of the best I've seen. Congratulations to all involved.

— Korrine Fitz, Soquel

Cabrillo puts on masterful 'Death of a Salesman'

Cabrillo Theatre Arts Department's production of Arthur Miller's "Death of a Salesman" is brilliant. From the very beginning, the actors pull you into their pathetic lives and you become part of the wretched Loman family. Everyone can relate to — or knows someone just like — Willy Loman, the misguided yet self-loathinggrunt at the center of the story. Each and every actor was extraordinary. This is truly a masterful per-