The Cabrillo College women’s volleyball team won two matches Saturday to complete a 4-0 run at the Delta Classic in Stockton for first place.

Cabrillo outside hitter Kelsey Shaver, a Harbor High alumna, was named tournament MVP. She had 66 kills in the tournament.

Teammates Tyler Gasloga, a setter, and middle Maddie Borch were named to the all-tournament team for the Seahawks, who host the Cabrillo Classic this Saturday, taking on Porterville and ARC.

Cabrillo topped Canada and Modesto in play Friday.
