Hawks can’t keep up with MPC

QB Davis throws for 213 yards for Cabrillo

By Staff report

The Cabrillo College football team fell behind by a 13-0 deficit in the first quarter and never came back, falling to host Monterey Peninsula College 31-15 on Saturday night.

Seahawks quarterback Brenden Davis threw for 213 yards on 20-of-39 passing. He had two interceptions and one touchdown, finding Lamar Cowans on a 1-yard scoring pass late in the fourth quarter.

Brian “BJ” Johnson had a 57-yard interception return that got the Seahawks on the scoreboard midway through the second quarter. Aidan Daily added a 32-yard field goal toward the end of the first half.

Cabrillo trailed MPC 19-9 at the break.

The Lobos pulled away in the second half when Jacob Robante recorded his second touchdown of the game – a 1-yard run that made it a 25-9 MPC lead. Robante had an 11-yard scoring run to open the game.

Robante finished with 133 yards on 19 attempts.

Dominic Bonner was Cabrillo’s main receiver, hauling in eight balls for 125 yards.

It is Cabrillo’s fifth straight loss to open the season. The Seahawks will look to find the win column on Oct. 18 when they will host Gavilan at 7 p.m.

Gavilan (2-3) has lost three in a row since starting the season with back-to-back wins.

MPC improves to 3-2 and will visit Merced on Oct. 18.
