Cabrillo football trio earns all-conference honors

By Sentinel Staff

Cabrillo College had three players selected to the all-Golden Coast Conference football team. Offensive lineman Matt Sisco, a freshman out of Soquel High, and sophomore wide receiver Dominic Bonner earned all-conference honors on offense.

Bonner, a Santa Cruz alum, had 52 receptions for 530 yards and four touchdowns. All three totals led Cabrillo (2-8, 1-5).

He also had 19 kick returns for 525 yards and a touchdown to help him finish with 1,218 all-purpose yards and finish second on the team in scoring with 30 points.

Linebacker Darrian Williams, a sophomore out of Faith Academy in Mobile, Ala., was among the honorees listed at defensive back.

Williams recorded 72 tackles, including four for a loss of yards. He forced one fumble and broke up eight passes.

Hartnell running back Sherrod Hawkes, a freshman out of Baltimore, was named Offensive Player of the Year and West Hills lineman Maurice Daniels, a sophomore out of Chicago, was awarded Defensive Player of the Year honors.

Hartnell’s Matt Collins and West Hills’ Robert Tucker were named co-coaches of the year after their teams each went 5-1 to share the conference title.

LOWERY GETS INTERCEPTION » Atlanta safety Dwight Lowery, a Soquel High and Cabrillo alum, recorded an interception and five tackles to help the Falcons beat the visiting Arizona Cardinals 29-18 to remain in a tie for first place in the NFC South Division with New Orleans (5-7).

Lowery, a seventh-year pro out of San Jose State, increased his season tackle total to 55.

That total is only second to his rookie season, when he recorded 64 with the New York Jets.

It was his second interception this season and the 12th of his career.

Lowery and the Falcons (5-7) play at Green Bay (9-3) on Dec. 8 on 5:30 p.m. The game will be televised on ESPN.
