Needs of county foster children examined

The UC Santa Cruz Women's Club will host a panel discussion titled "It Takes a Village" on April 2, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Panelists at the UCSC Arboretum will look at how educational needs for the county's 250 foster youth are being met, and how attendees can help.

Speakers from the FosterEd Initiative at the County Office of Education, Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA), Cabrillo College's Foster and Kinship Care Education Program and UCSC's Smith Renaissance Society will participate in the free event.
