Gardening boot camp set for June 21

The fourth annual UCCE Master Gardeners of Monterey Bay Home Gardening Boot Camp occurs all day Saturday, June 21, at Cabrillo College Horticulture Center. The cost is $40.

The theme is “Coping with Drought” and the program includes many water conservation classes plus xeriscaping, succulents, salvias, and California natives. Topics include propagation, pruning, composting, soils, and beekeeping.

Registration begins at 8 a.m. and orientation starts at 9:05 a.m. There are two morning sessions beginning at 9:30 a.m. (seven to eight options to choose from for each), followed by lunch and a Cabrillo Horticulture plant sale from 12:35-2:05 p.m. The afternoon session is from 2:15-3:45, and the day ends with a silent auction at 4 p.m.

Instructors include Robin Stockwell of Succulent Gardens and Matthew Sutton of Orchard Keepers.

Cabrillo College is at 6500 Soquel Drive. Visit mbmg.org/participate/mbmg-boot-camp/ for details.
