ROYALS NO MATCH FOR GIANTS MADMUB

Victory: Bumgarner a nightmare for Kansas City in World Series

SANTA CRUZ — The top-10 pitcher in baseball history struck out the top four batters as Kansas City Royals hit a walk-off home run during a 5-2 Royals win. The Giants' Madison Bumgarner tossed a four-hitter in their Game 4 loss.

Giants: Bumgarner takes his place amongst the postseason greats

The San Francisco Giants have been in the postseason for 15 years and are currently playing in the World Series. The Giants have a rich history of postseason success, including three World Series championships.

Miller: Pirelli's new mayor

The new mayor of Pirelli, the Italian tire company, is John Miller, who was previously the company's chief executive officer. Miller has been a key figure in the company's recent growth and expansion.

Presidents

The presidents of the United States have been facing a lot of challenges lately, including the ongoing government shutdown and the Russia-Ukraine conflict. Some have been more effective than others in navigating these challenges.

Policy

The policy landscape is highly complex, with a range of issues from healthcare and immigration to climate change and international relations. It will be interesting to see how the new administration approaches these challenges.

Technology

The technology industry is constantly evolving, with new products and services being introduced all the time. It will be interesting to see how the industry evolves in the coming years.

Business

The business landscape is competitive, with companies vying for market share and trying to stay ahead of the curve. It will be interesting to see how the industry changes in the coming years.

Sports

The sports world is full of excitement, with teams competing for championships and players striving for greatness. It will be interesting to see how the season unfolds.