CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

THE STUDENT LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE AWARD

Nomination deadline: April 30, 2013

What is the Student Leadership and Service Award? Established in February, 1998 by The Committee to Honor Meritorious Service, this award honors a student who served the college and/or the community in a noteworthy manner. The recipient of this award must have demonstrated outstanding leadership, service to the college, or service within the community. Additionally, this award recognizes both outstanding contributions to the college mission and inspiration to the college community.

Who is eligible to receive this award? Any current student who has been enrolled at Cabrillo College for at least two semesters is eligible to receive this award.

Who is eligible to nominate a recipient? Any current Cabrillo College faculty, staff, student, or any organization representing them, may nominate candidate(s) for this award.

How many awards may be given? One (1) Student Leadership and Service Award may be given annually.

What is the process? The Committee to Honor Meritorious Service, a representative group appointed by the Cabrillo College President, will consider all completed nominations for the award, using the criteria outlined above. The Committee will recommend an award recipient to the President by the end of each spring semester. The award will be announced during All College Day preceding the start of the following fall semester.

How can I nominate a candidate? To nominate a candidate for the Student Leadership and Service Award, complete the form on the next page. Return it to the Committee to Honor Meritorious Service, c/o the President’s Office.
THE STUDENT LEADERSHIP AWARD NOMINATION FORM

Nominee’s Name:__________________________________________________________________________

Please give reasons why this nominee deserves an Award. Include information about nominee's role at Cabrillo College or in support of Cabrillo College. Provide specific examples of extraordinary service. Attach additional sheet(s), if necessary.

Your/Group Name & Phone Number: __________________________________________________________

Note: Please be as complete and explicit as possible when filling out this form. The Committee will rely on the information you provide on this nomination form when making an award decision. You are welcome to make additional copies of this form if needed.