Adela Naranjo- Bernabe

Cabrillo College Dream
Resource Program
Coordinator

An alum of Watsonville High and Cabrillo College, Adela earned her B.A. in Liberal Studies and Human Development at CSU Monterey Bay and her M.A. in Educational Counseling from San Jose State University. She is interested in engaging conversation around some of the complexities that come in pursuing a higher education. Topics include imposter syndrome, navigating higher ed. as a first generation and formerly undocumented student, financial and family struggles. At heart she wants to address the importance of women of color in leadership roles. She is mamá to a young son and currently working on her doctorate in Community College Leadership at San Diego State University.
